Being Community in Times Like These

Pastor Daryl Gilbert

What does it mean to be a community in our day and time? I think that there was a time when identifying a “community” was easy because many communities had definition. Definition came from the fact that a community was usually built around an entity such as a factory or particular industry, and that industry created needs for its workers. The factory or industry was composed of upper management, middle management, and workers. Housing in different parts of the community was established to serve these three levels of workers based on their income brackets.

Businesses sprang up seemingly over night to serve those various communities. It seems like churches sprang up over night as well—each tailored to meet the spiritual needs of each individual community. When it came to church attendance, an old quote comes to mind: “Eleven o’clock on Sunday morning is the most segregated hour in America.” Church membership in those days did not seem to cross social or cultural barriers. Could the person who coined that quote have been thinking about the supervisor who did not want to be looking at the back of his boss’s head on Sunday morning, or the entry level worker who really did not want to interact with his/her supervisor?

We know for ourselves that communities change. Factories close their doors, and people retire from their jobs. Sometimes people move away when the community starts to change or transition. Sometimes they stay in the same community and gain a different social status when the circumstances in their life changes, and move to a different part of the neighborhood. Children in these families leave home (or stay) and make their way up of down the social ladder of life, and often make social changes in their lives that reflect those changes.

The one thing that remains in most of these communities is the churches that sprang up to serve the families of the “good old days.” These churches served the spiritual needs of communities that were easy to define when they were established. How do these churches meet the spiritual needs of a community that has changed?

Churches, for better or worse, reflected the communities they served. The same people many interacted with on Sunday morning may have been the same people they saw at work during the week or the neighborhood grocery store on Friday night. Spiritual needs revolved around hearing what God required of a person to be a good Christian and a productive member of the community.

One thing that has always been true of all Christians (and everyone else for that matter) is that we are all pilgrims on the way some place that is much bigger than ourselves. In the larger sense we are talking about heaven, but in the natural sense we are talking about wholeness. Wholeness can be defined as something as universal as a better life for ourselves and our families, or something as profound as spiritual and/or emotional healing. There is something fulfilling about being on the right track when it comes to being in pursuit of wholeness.

Wholeness is something that many are pursuing in our day and time, and they are doing it out in the open. Whole industries have been created to help people get on the right path who are searching for this elusive phenomenon. There are people “out there” who have been on several different paths and discovered the paths that they were on did not lead them where they wanted to go.

Christ has not changed, and Christ knows the right path. Christ has been leading people to wholeness for a couple of thousand years. The church is the body of Christ, and called on to be community even during challenging time like these.

Blessings, Pastor Daryl A. Gilbert

Upcoming Youth Activities

September was a busy and fun month for the High Street Church youth. We kicked off the month with a great weekend at Epworth's Fall Rally, learning to reach up to God and out to others, then hustled home in time for the fun of the All Church Picnic. We've been given the chance to visit both the Epworth and Bethany Sunday school classes. Thank you to all of the members of both classes for letting us join us, and for feeding us treats! Jackie Everetts and Savannah Myers have been sharing with various classes about their South American trips. If you would like them to visit your class, let Kristy or one of the girls know and they'll be happy to share with you. The youth have also begun a new Flocking Fund Raiser, populating Pastor Daryl's yard with Pink Flamingos as our first stop. We are also raising funds for a mission trip to the Everetts' orphanage in Jamaica in March!

October Events:

Oct. 13: The Grove, 6-8:00 PM in Parish Hall

Oct. 19: Annual trip to 1 Fun Farm and the Chocolate Moose in Farmland! We will leave the church at 4 PM and return around 11 PM. Come join us for pumpkins, the legendary corn maze, and awesome food!

Oct. 20: The Grove, 6-8:00 PM in Parish Hall

Oct. 27: PUMPKIN BASH! We will meet at the Pattison's at 5 PM for a potluck dinner and all sorts of fun and games involving pumpkins! We plan to find out just how far we can launch a pumpkin with a variety of pumpkin flinging devices. Wear your costume and bring a pumpkin or fall-inspired dish to share. Promiseland students in the 4th and 5th grades will be invited to join us for this event.

Thursday Lunch Schedule For October

Oct. 3: Tameka Mendez, "Nutrition and Physical Activity" Delaware Co. Coop Extension

Oct. 10: Duane Ott, "Magic With a Message"

Oct. 17: Al Holdren, "Secret Families"

Oct. 24: Debbie Wilson, "Testimony of Faith"

Oct. 31 Eastern Gate Quartet "Harvest Lunch Special"

Please call the office by Tuesday afternoon to register for Thursday Luncheon.

Nov. 4: Senior Supper at MCL - 4:30 P.M.

The Flamingos Are Coming!

The High Street Church Youth are once again flocking yards, accepting the assistance of two dozen pink flamingos to raise funds for missions. A couple times per week the flamingos will invade a new yard. Flock removal will then be offered by the youth for a nominal fee of $5. The flock-ee will have the right to choose where the flamingos go next. The youth are also selling Flamingo Insurance to safeguard against flamingo invasion. If you want to stave off the flamingos, you can purchase this insurance at the youth desk in the hallway or from the church office. We offer various levels of flamingo protection; the better the policy the less likely you are to be flocked! Flamingo insurance can be overbid, but policy holders will be notified of their flocking vulnerability and given the chance to strengthen their policy before the birds can head their way. All flocking is done in good fun and is in no way meant to be malicious. Please help support the youth as we begin this fun fund raiser!

Children's Choirs

There's still room for you! The Children's Choir and Kids Praise Choir are practicing on Wednesday evenings starting at 6:00 p.m. in the choir room and the Parlor. All children grades K-8 are invited to join and be a part of the fun, learning, and worshipful experience. Questions? See Pastor Daryl, Andrew Crow or Jordan Dollins, or call the church office at 747-8500.

Save The Date!

Mark your calendars for Saturday, December 7th. We will make A Visit To Bethlehem. This year the time will be 10 - 11:30 AM. Visit the pottery, wood, metal, and bakery shops. Come and hear the story of Jesus and much more!

College/Career Small Group

The College/Career Small Group will be starting a series of Bible studies following a Lifeguide study guide called "Loving Justice," by Bob and Carol Hunter. The study begins Friday, October 18. The group meets on Friday evenings at 7:00 in the High Street Church Parlor. As always, there will be free food! Jim Mahoney leads the group. For more information, contact the church office at 747-8500.

Yummy Candy Is Coming!

Watch for your 2014 Joy In the Harvest team on October 20th. We will be in the Parlor selling our yummy caramel chocolate pretzels! You won't want to miss out on a chance to tantalize your taste buds... and at the same time help the team raise the funds needed for their plane ticket.

Waffle Palooza

7:45 AM to 12:45 PM
Parish Hall

All you can eat waffles and sausages! Invite your family and friends and neighbors to join you! A freewill donation will be taken to assist with the cost of airfare to Tanzania, Africa in June, 2014, for the second Joy In the Harvest Mission Trip.

High Street United Methodist Christians

WORSHIP God;
CONNECT with other Christians to grow as disciples; and
SERVE Christ in the community.

This fall we will celebrate that we are a people who worship, connect, and serve, as we move into our stewardship campaign. Committees are projecting ministry with their budget needs for 2014. Each of us is receiving a series of mailings. Each mailing will have a card to return on Sundays, as we celebrate how we worship, how we connect, and how we serve. Join us in celebrating who we are and are called to be as disciples of Christ.

CROP Hunger Walk Update

God provided a beautiful day for the CROP Hunger walk! Eighteen High Streeters walked to help fight hunger and it was exciting to see some new faces join the walk. Donations to the High Street Church team totaled over $1,000! It's not too late to donate if you're interested in helping. You can drop off a check and indicate it is for CROP or you can go online at www.crophungerwalk.org/munciein. An amount equal to 25% of the funds raised comes back to our local community through Christian Ministries. Thank you for your support!

Thank You

To Our High Street Church Family—

Thank you to each and every one of you for your support during this difficult time in our family's lives. The passing of my dad, Don Guard was not totally unexpected. . . however, he took a bad turn and spiraled so very quickly that not all family members were able to get to the hospital before he passed.

We would like you to know whether it has been a hug, a prayer, a card, a phone call, or a tear shared this week, your love and concern has touched us and made us so very thankful to be a part of the High Street Church family.

— Dale and Cathy Mendenhall and Family

Family and Friends. . .

We hope this note finds you in good health and good spirits. Joyce Kaufman, our mother, has recently moved into a nursing home in Fort Collins, Colorado. It is close to where Rick and Diane live. Her medical conditions of diabetes and weakness in her arms and legs will not allow her to live independently.

During our visits with her we talk about family and friends. She has so many questions about what everyone is doing. She would love to hear from you and promises to write back.

Thank you!

Her children,

Rick, Greg and Kim Kaufman

Any mail delivered to:

Joyce Kaufman

5007 Wihewood Court

Ft. Collins, CO 80528

will be hand delivered to our mother.

Visit to Heritage Pointe

Join us as we travel to Heritage Pointe, our UM Retirement Community in Warren, IN. We will leave the church at 11:45 on Tuesday, November 12. While there we will visit with our High Street friends and share pumpkin pie! Call the church office, 747-8500, if you are interested in our trip!

Shop & Give!

How would you like to go shopping and benefit those in need at the same time? You can do this by donating $5 for a Carson's Community Days Coupon book. The coupons in the book are good on November 15th and 16th and include over $500 in coupons including a coupon for $10 off an item of $10 or more and a shopping pass that saves up to 25% both in store and on-line. Non-profit agencies have the books available and 100% of the $5 donation goes directly to the nonprofit agency.

We will have coupon books available in the church office with proceeds going to Christian Ministries. Not sure if you need anything? Think about getting a coupon book and using the $10 coupon to buy socks/underwear for the Children's Clothing Center, gifts for the Stephen Ministry military packages, or a blanket for the Blanket Cupboard. Questions? Contact Sue Stover at sstover400@gmail.com

In Sympathy

Our love and condolences are offered to the family and friends of Donald Waite; and to Cathy Mendenhall and family on the death of her father, Don Guard; and to William Jones and family on the death of his mother, Gloria Jean Jones.

HOW WE HELP!

The Samaritan Fund - 2013

People Helped:	580
Rent:	$4,190.00
Utilities:	$10,839.04
Prescriptions:	$1,306.00
Misc.:	$1,350.48
Total:	$17,685.52

Such a total for the year so far, and so much of it for utility bills. Right now people are trying to pay off last winter's heating bills before this winter comes. Unfortunately, our Samaritan Fund is so low that we cannot help much. Please remember that we depend on you to help us help the least of these.

Thank You!

When you gave blood, you helped change lives. On September 15, we had 12 donors, with 4 of those being first-time donors. We collected 11 units of blood which can potentially save 33 lives! Thank you so much for participating!

The room was designed to be used as the meeting room for the local troop of the Boy Scouts of America. Learning to start fires is considered to be a fundamental skill for Boy Scouts, and a fireplace in their meeting room was a practical idea.
